

Diocesan Environment Group

“The earth is the Lord’s and everything in it” Psalm 24:1

We’re looking for Diocesan Environment Group members to help the people, churches and structures of the diocese live out our commitment to sustainable care of God’s creation. Could this be you?

About the Committee

The Diocesan Environment Group (DEG) currently meet online five times each year.

The Group help to develop strategies and methods for implementing environmental initiatives and best practice across the diocese, providing support and encouragement to parishes, church members, Deanery Environmental Representatives and diocesan structures.

Membership will run from March 2025 for a three-year term.

Committee Members

A range of skills, experience and knowledge is needed for the Committee to enable them to effectively inspire, encourage and challenge.

We’re looking for up to five members (clergy or laity) with skills, knowledge or interest in the following areas:

- Environmental sustainability
- Carbon reduction
- Climate change
- Eco Church
- Land and nature
- Training and awareness raising
- Community engagement

Individual members do not need to have experience across all of these areas.

Interested?

See our website for full details including how to apply

For an informal conversation or to find out more please contact Godfrey Armitage, Diocesan Environment Officer godfrey.armitage@coventry.anglican.org