Prayer Diary

August 2022

New Priests and Deacons

For eleven months of the year, the Prayer Diary focuses on the eleven deaneries in our diocese. In the month of August, however, there is space for a change of focus.

A few weeks ago the new Priests and Deacons were ordained in the Cathedral. You will find a brief biography of each of these ministers in this edition of the Prayer Diary. Please pray for them. In the Cycle of Prayer for this month, the words of the Litany from the Ordination service are included as well as a variety of other people and events for you to remember in your prayers.

Alison Abbot is a deacon in the Edgehill Parishes in south Warwickshire. She also works part time as a pharmacist. She is keen to use her healthcare background to explore holistic ministry in a rural context. She would value your prayers in maintaining a healthy balance between paid employment, ministry, family and rest.

Jeremy Bevan is a deacon at St. Barbara's, Earlsdon, in Coventry. He is a self-supporting minister, working part-time in the parish while pursuing his other 'calling': as a civil servant, he has worked on a fascinating range of government policies over the past 35+ years. He looks forward to growing together with the people of St. Barbara's.

James Bremner is a deacon at St Bartholomew's, Binley. James would value your prayers for all the little practical and emotional traumas of moving house, and for settling into life and ministry in Binley (and perhaps for all the poor folk who will have to put up with the Bremners!)

Caroline Hammond is a deacon at St John's, Westwood in the Bridge Benefice. She was originally on staff at St John's before discerning a call to ordained ministry. As part of her curacy, Caroline will be developing the Garden of Hope missional project which seeks to help people explore God through contemplation.

Rachel King is a deacon at St Marks Coventry. Rachel and her family have been worshipping at St Marks for the past year where Rachel has been involved with student ministry and the Academy as well as preaching and leading services. She is looking forward to continuing to help St Marks in its remit to be a city centre resource church.

Rosemary Lowdon is a deacon at the Revel Group of churches, combining this with her work as a Prison Chaplain. Rosemary originally trained as a Reader to assist in parish ministry, but was sent to prison for a placement, and found it a place of many conversations about God! Please pray for her as she combines prison and parish roles.

Sam Millard is a deacon at St Mary Magdalene's Church with Church of the Risen Christ in Wyken, Coventry. Prior to ordination training Sam worked for the church as a Community Outreach pastor, with a focus on community engagement through many different partnerships including local authorities, schools and charities.

Stacy Nelson is a deacon at Holy Trinity Hartshill and St Peter's Galley Common. Stacy grew up in California and migrated to sunny England several years ago. She trained at The Queen's Foundation in Birmingham and hopes God will use her in ministry to show how loved and valued each person is by their creator.

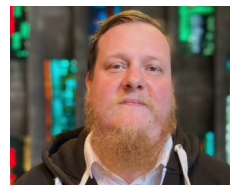

Tris Peattie is a deacon at All Saints Bedworth Church and St Mary and St John, Camp Hill in Nuneaton. Tris trained at St Mellitus College in London, having previous experience as a family link worker in various church and school settings. Please pray for Tris, his wife, Hannah, and their four daughters as they settle in to Camp Hill.

Thomas Powell is a deacon at Holy Trinity Church, Stratford-upon-Avon. Thomas has spent the last 35 years in academic life, most recently as Professor of Strategy at Oxford University. Thomas studied theology at Fuller Theological Seminary (MA) and Oxford University (MTh), and trained for ordination at Ripon College in Cuddesdon.

Matt Spina is a deacon at St Peter's in Hillfields, Coventry. Matt grew up in New Jersey, USA but has lived in the UK for almost 20 years. Please pray for Matt and the congregation of St Peter's as together they move into a new phase of witnessing to God's love in Hillfields.

Daniel Vickerstaff is a deacon at St John the Baptist, Leamington Spa. Daniel is excited to be able to serve the parish of St John the Baptist as a deacon, and to minister in word, sacrament, and service to the people of south Leamington, sharing his love of the good news of the gospel through the traditions of the Church.

Jacque Ayton is a priest at St. Alban's church in Stoke Heath, Coventry. Jacque has especially thrived while walking alongside people in their grief through funerals and other pastoral situations, and also guiding people in their faith journey through baptism and confirmation courses.

Matthew Bull is a priest in the Bedworth Team. It has been a hectic year since Matthew's deacon ordination, moving to a new home and getting used to full time parish life, but the support of the team and the members of the congregation have made it a great experience. Matthew thanks God for all that he has given.

Sarah Cushing is a priest at All Saints, Emscote in Warwick. Sarah has found in particular, that one of her passions has been life events, which are really special to witness and minister to. Sarah also very much enjoys children's ministry, in particular, being involved with Little Saints pre-school worship and activities.

Matt Ford is a priest at St Martins-in-the-Fields, Finham. Matt is excited about the missional opportunities that are bubbling up in the Finham area. His time at St Martins has been incredibly rewarding and fulfilling, and Matt is excited about what God will do over the coming years.
